Centennial School

This elementary school, located at 3830 East Saginaw was built during the Centennial Year of the City of Fresno. In honor of the occasion, it was named by the Fresno Unified School District Board of Education during 1956. It did not open however until 1957-58, which is the first year it was listed in the Fresno Unified School District directory.

It currently serves children of grades K-6.