Ann M. Leavenworth School

Ann M. Leavenworth (1924-1983) dedicated her life to education. A professor of history and political science at Fresno State University, she took an active interest in her students; inspiring many of them to surpass their own expectations. As a parent volunteer, she organized efforts to promote educational opportunities for student from all walks of life.

Her commitment to the youth of Fresno is well-documented by her years of service on the Fresno Unified School District Board of Education, serving as President in 1968-69. Later in 1978 Ann Leavenworth was appointed to the State Board of Education and served, as its president from 1980-83. Born in Indiana, she lived most of her life in California.

The school was completed in 1994. It is located in the southeast part of town at 4420 East Thomas. The school serves students grades in grades K-6.
